

FIRST XV EXPORTS

15 Paul Williams SAMOA

The son of All Blacks legend Bryan Williams has excelled at Super rugby as a speedy attacker.

14 James Paterson USA

Dubbed with American football before making the New Zealand Colts. Has performed well for the Highlanders.

13 George Pisi SAMOA

A hard running centre who has played for North Harbour, Brankai, the Blues and Northampton.

12 Shortayne Hape ENGLAND

Bringing a little Kiwi league experience to the English midfield.

11 Digby Ioane AUSTRALIA

Another former logic, developing a sharp eye for finishing.

Quade Cooper AUSTRALIA

Tokoroa's finest has been welcomed with open arms in Australia. One of the liveliest playmakers in the game.

8 Jeremy Kyne CANADA

"Very physical and very rugged," says Canada coach Kieran Crowley. That fits us.

6 Kane Thompson SAMOA

The nomadic Thompson has won the Highlanders jersey and played in the 2007 World Cup.

3 Anthony Perines SAMOA

All 10kg beast of a Hurricanes prop. Aspecialist tighthead scrummage.

2 Dylan Hartley ENGLAND

An English scrapper of Robora origin. The yellow cord is never far away.

9 Kahn Fohai'i SAMOA

Crip pace and lively pace mean he is considered by many to be the best of the present lot of halfbacks born on these shores.

7 Michael Leitch JAPAN

Probably happier at No.8, Leitch has lived in Japan since the age of 15 and captained his adopted national at the 2008 Junior World Championship.

5 Daniel Lee SAMOA

A veteran of 26 tests for Samoa and the 2005 Pacific Islanders series, a tough competitor with ball in hand.

4 Luke Thompson JAPAN

A 2007 campaigner with a respectable seven tries from 34 tests.

John Kirwan JAPAN

Few would have thought Kirwan's leadership brilliance on the field would transfer into a great coaching brain. He's UK is a coaching name in Italy and now Japan.

Kieran Crowley CANADA

The Tokoroa man they call Coki returned in the 2007 and 2011 World Cup squads and now coaches Canada.

1 Deacon Mami FIJI

He's played for the Chiefs and NZ Maori and these days pines his trade with the Danelli Scarlets.

Warron Gatland WALES

Gatland is the latest of many Kiwis to hone his skills in the coaching craft with the Red Dragons.

COACHING STAFF

Robbie Deans AUSTRALIA

A former All Black and a legendary Canterbury coach, Deans' deflection to coach the Wallabies earned him the nickname "Deag".
